Re-write the following text eliminating subjective evaluations and hyped facts, and use bullets for easier reading

The tone of this paragraph is sales-oriented, designed to convince taxpayers that the IRS is a benign, friendly organization whose sole purpose is to make the tax-filing process more user-friendly.

"You’ll be glad you’ve landed on the Tax Info For You page. Because here you’ll find tax tips for individuals—for folks just like you. Find out about exemptions. Learn how to estimate tax liability. Or, discover all the latest changes and reminders regarding your taxes. In case you don’t have a pre-printed envelope, there’s even a map to help you find out where to file. So, now that you’ve got exactly what you need, things will definitely go a whole lot smoother."
"
The “Tax Info For You” page is designed to help you through the process of filing your federal income tax. In it, you will find many useful tax tips, including information about:

- Exemptions
- Tax liability
- Recent changes in taxation policy and legislation
- Reminders regarding filing
- Where to file your tax forms if you don’t have a pre-printed envelope